

ABSTRACT

PT. Multi Star Rukun Abadi is a company engaged in food selector, specifically a bakery named Sharon Bakery. This company has implemented an ERP Odoo 14 system and have been using several modules. Like companies in general, the company's stakeholders want increased income. With the ease of managing companies using Odoo, from this request, the data were related to sales are analyzed to construct a sales forecasting that needs to be applied in Odoo. The system can process formulation by generating information regarding sales estimated for the next period. The author used Python programming language and PostgreSQL Database For design a system to display sales estimated. This system will have expected to help PT. Multi Star Rukun Abadi in producing faster and more accurate information.

Keywords: Sales, Odoo, Web Application