

ABSTRACT

Abstract : Kidnapping is a criminal act in which a person is taken away without authority or by force or for the purposes of the perpetrator, a child is an individual who is unable to protect himself. Therefore, the number of child abductions in Indonesia is increasing every year because of the lack of educational media or awareness of the dangers of kidnapping and how to prevent them for the target audience of children. An illustration book can be a good introductory medium to introduce it to a child because it has an attractive visual and bright color can educate for a child of their age. By comparing works of a kind, the author can design a good illustration book on how to prevent kidnapping for children. For the ultimate purpose, children in the early five to nine years of age are able to identify and prevent the kidnapping of the child who is tracking them.
