

ABSTRACT

Online gambling is a game that bets something like money other valuable items to win requires great luck if you are unlucky, you will experience bankruptcy. Online gambling can also be accessed anywhere such as cellphones and computers, electronic devices that can connect to the internet can access online gambling. The short film work of the final project entitled "Expetasi Realita" tells the story of a person who is trapped in an online gambling game that makes him addicted and hit by many problems. In this work we can find out the risks of playing online gambling for teenagers, this work was created with a type of short film to give an impression in the story, especially the elements of cinematography. The purpose of the creation of the work is to visualize how and what is felt before, when, and the desire of people who have played online gambling through the medium of short films, which includes how emotions are depicted through changes that occur around them.

Keywords: Online gambling, Short film, Cinematography