ABSTRACT

Application Of Red Onion Purchase Data Management Web-Based "Tabelku" is an application used to record, search, and view purchase data. This application takes a case study at UD Bawang Merah Indofood Nganjuk, East Java. This application was built to make it easier for employees and business owners to record, search, and view purchase data. In addition, this application makes it easy for business owners to view reports of purchases monthly. The method used to make this application is the Waterfall method. The programming language used to build this application is PHP Framework CodeIgniter 3 and MySQL database.

Keywords: Application, My Table, Red Onion, CodeIgniter 3, MySQL