ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all those who have contributed to the successful completion of my thesis. This journey has been challenging, enlightening, and incredibly rewarding, and I owe much of my accomplishment to the support and encouragement of institution and numerous individuals.

1. First and foremost, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my supervisor, Mr. Parman Sukarno, Ph.D, whose guidance, expertise, and unwavering support have been instrumental in the completion of this thesis. Your mentorship has not only shaped the direction of my research but has also been a source of inspiration throughout this academic journey.

2. Mrs. Dr. Setyorini, S.T., M.T. as Head of Master Informatics who has offered guidance, suggestions, and valuable input throughout the journey of this thesis implementation

3. I am pleased to extend my gratitude to my esteemed office colleagues for their support and encouragement throughout the course of my thesis research. Your presence have been instrumental in shaping both my academic and professional journey.

4. I also wish to express my appreciation to my friends and colleagues who offered their support, encouragement, and a listening ear during the ups and downs of this journey. Your camaraderie made the challenges easier to overcome and the successes all the more enjoyable.
