

ABSTRACT

MasjidHub is an Android-based application designed to facilitate collaboration between mosques and manage religious and social events efficiently. The app provides a solution for mosques that often face challenges in coordinating, and managing mosque activities. With MasjidHub, users can easily search for information about nearby mosques, view event schedules, and participate in collaborative projects. Through the features offered, MasjidHub is expected to increase community participation in mosque activities and strengthen relationships between mosques to achieve common goals.

Keywords: mosque, infaq, collaboration, android