

ABSTRACT

This final project aims to design a web-based sales application for the Nasi Krawu Cak Darma UMKM to manage sales transactions and payroll. The application is built using the Laravel framework and MySQL database, developed with the Waterfall method. Testing with Black Box Testing shows that the application functions properly and can generate accurate financial reports. This application is expected to simplify transaction management and improve operational efficiency for the UMKM.

Keywords: Sales Application, UMKM, Laravel, MySQL.