

ABSTRACT

Content Management System (CMS) a system giving amenity to user in managing and performing a change of content a dynamic website, before without supplied by knowledge about technical. CMS represent a new method in development of web and or dynamic portal, with this CMS, its expected will assist interconnected institution or company in submitting and arranging information easily without having to entangle master web.

Recently, many product of CMS pop out, open source and also is commercial. But to much of CMS this seldom focusing at one of area, education for example. Therefore in this Final Project writer will try to develop a CMS which focusing at senior school. So the yielded modules also will differ from most Existing CMS.

Intention of this final project will develop a CMS which focusing at school. So the result of modules also will differ from most existing CMS. This CMS develop with language program of PHP,XML and MySQL or PostGreSQL as its database, using Sitemanager framework and with concept Model View Controller (MVC). With existence of CMS school this expected will support growth of education in SMAN 8.

Key world : Content Management System (CMS), framework Model View Controller (MVC), School.