

THE ETHICAL JOURNALIST : Making Responsible Decisions In The Pursuit Of News

Consists of two part:

Part 1 : Foundation for making ethical decisions

This part will prepare you to make ethical decisions in journalism

Chapter 1, explains why journalist should understand ethics

Chapter 2, explores the history of ethics

Chapter 3, 4, and 5 discuss journalism's role in society, the shared value of the profession.

Chapter 6, 7, and 8 lay the Foundation for moral decision making in journalism.

Part 2 : exploring themes of ethics issues in journalism each of chapter 9 through 17 discusses a topic in which all journalists. Chapter 18 and 19 discuss ethics issues that are specific to the following specialized area.

