ABSTRACT

In The Hotel business, especially the five star hotel, it is always needed a control towards hotel's daily activity. The control that has been done by a businessman is held to know about hotel business development that had by businessman, in order to increase the profits.

In this final poject, make an information system which used for seeing hotel business development which had by owner based on web, consist of some process. They are guest and room information which had by hotel and repots about available rooms, so guests that want to ladge will know about the availability entertaintment reports of hotel. Also managing officer data in order to get real information about officers.

Application is made by a desain and analysis which structural method. System implementation process built based on PHP programming language with Dreamweaver as editor, HTML and MySqL as database. This application can control easily and give information about hotel condition