

ABSTRACT

This final project will make an application that manages informations exists in SMP baitul Anshor. It will manages informations such as teachers information, students information and student assess information. School information service application of this school can manages students data to be used for neither students registration process and new student registration in SMP Baitul Anshor.

Users Goals in this Assess and registration service application is administration worker (operator) at SMP Baitul Anshor. while pupil's parents represents constumer user which can enjoy this application services. Administration worker undertakes teachers database, students database, new student registration, handling registration process, student assess database. While students assess process in this application used to fulfill the assess information requirement that required by pupil's parents for monitoring the achievement of their pupil's through SMS (Short Message Service). each pupil parent will have an ID to conduct their pupils assess request through SMS.

This application made by Borland Delphi programming language and Paradox as it's database. To assist information forwarding fluency to pupils parents, SMS service is used with a handphone as its medium(as it's SMS gateway).

Keywords :

Borland Delphi, paradox, SMS.