

ABSTRACT

Administration Information System and Cinema Services software is system information software based on Web with client-server concept that aim to manage administration and services cinema information system computerizedly. It is can facilitate cinema organizer in reaching target and function from information system management by using this software. System based on Web with client-server concept enabling checking and observation directly through computer network from cinema organizer or administrator as server to counter worker or operator as client. Making of this information system is based on preexist system.

Cinema information System software providing of facility to administration process which handling by administrator and services process by operator, administration process covering the management of counter worker data, incoming film, studio, and transaction so that obtain the profit to make a profit report. While services process covering handling of sale transaction visually. Cinema Information System develop with Open Source software that using PHP programing language and data base management with SQL Server 2000, and using computer server based on Windows.

Keywords : Service, Administration, Client-server concept, Web, PHP