

Abstract

CV Bandung Book Centre is one of book stores that is also as distributor for book stores around. To buy a book in CV Bandung Book Centre, we must go directly to the store, via telephone and via facsimile. Because of that reason, an application is needed to help been selling process without decreasing the current systems.

The suitable application for handling that problem is by forming an online book trade application (e-commerce), because by this e-commerce or direct selling that use internet facility where website can provide “get and deliver” service.

The forming of online book trade application (e-commerce) has purpose to make the book selling in CV Bandung Book Centre easier. Result that application such as can do application (e-commerce) and doing searching bases on titles, author, publishers and book categories. There are shopping cart, payment order and shipping order functionality in this application.

This application using waterfall method. E-commerce application the writer has written based on web, using scripting PHP because of the simpler programming, for data base writer use Mysql, Microsoft Visio Professional 2000 and Macromedia Dreamweaver for web design.

Key Word : e-commerce, internet, shopping cart, payment order, shipping order