

Abstract

Left region are region in which their development have high priority according to government statement in GBHN 1999 – 2004 to spread everywhere and recovery economic condition of region.

Geographic Information System consists of spatial and textual data in which it's purpose to present geographic information that cover objects on the surface and inside of the earth. Representation of this system according to user needed.

According to explanation above, so built up Geographic Information System of Left Region in Tegal District Regency. Development system involve Tegal District Regency Government as user and also data provider in which is needed on development system.

System will be used by District Government of Tegal Regency as reference of district development planning, especially for opinion to allocate APBD and distribute granting of fund for left region in Tegal District Regency.

This system built up using MapInfo 8.0, MapBasic 6.5, Visual Basic 6.0, and Ms.Access 2003.

Keywords: GIS, Left Region, Tegal Regency