Abstract

People who want to request a driver license at Polwiltabes Bandung should do any process that sometimes can be very crowded so they also wait for a long time. Beside of that, they must fill the registration form at each process.

Looking for the solution, this project called "Web Based Driver License Administration Process at Polwiltabes Bandung" has to be built. This application manages the time slot for the people who want to request driver license. They just need to fill registration form on the web. This application uses web for registration page so it can do anywhere and anytime.

Web Based Driver License Administration Process at Polwiltabes Bandung built with PHP, Apache Server and MySQL to manage the database. The advantages of this applicatioon for the police side is helping them to keep and manage the people's data. With this application, driver license request activity at Polwiltabes Bandung not take a long time as now and helping the police to manage the process administration.

Keyword : Driver License, Polwiltabes Bandung, web