

Abstract

Scheme for the treatment procedure, repair, and the depository procedure and handling of material and document and also cover process process related to management activity, supplying of resource, realization of product and also measurement. Therefore it's needed a application existence which can give amenity in managing document and procedures in system of quality management for the shake of fluency work process.

procedure of Document Controller which come within Quality Management System very needed by application existence which can give amenity in managing document and procedures in system of quality management for the shake of fluency work process

This application builded in application base on web. Use Workflow Application for distribution mechanism according to hierarchy phase. Otherwise this application also use Macromedia Flash And Dreamweaver as writing editor program. For the web server use Apache Server.

Keywords: Quality Management System (QMS), document, PT TELKOM DIVRE III Jabar And Banten, Web, WorkFlow Application.