

ABSTRACT

SMA N 1 Margahayu is one of senior high school in Bandung that stood since 1967. Formerly was named Angkasa High School and in 1985 the school was officially named SMA Negeri 1 Margahayu. New admissions system still use manual way to process the data prospective students, such as the sort score of the final exam to determine graduation, add data registries and distribute information. Admission Application system with this new development can be done by storing the data into the database so the management data can be better than before. In these applications graduation announcements can be viewed from sms and computers. So prospective students can easily to find out the results of high school graduation of SMA N 1 Margahayu. Application of new admissions may be used by schools and prospective students to know the latest information on new admissions at the SMA N 1 Margahayu. And this application also can be used for data processing prospective high school students Margahayu N 1. So that data can be managed properly. This application is developed by PHP, CSS, MySQL, javascript and gammu.

keyword: new admissions, sma, management, sms