

ABSTRACT

to Improving and Developing activities that are last activities for Database Research Laboratory into a laboratory that exist in their activities and are able to participate in research ITTelkom. It takes an application that can accommodate the activities at Laboratory.

Final project titled "Application Management DataBase Activities in the Laboratory of the Faculty of Informatics ITTelkom" This has the ability in terms of dealing with the management of activities as well as a place to store documentation of research results, documentation of activities, as well as files that are considered important. Addition, this application uses technology website, which is implemented on the Intranet ITTelkom, so monitoring of conditions can be predicted with a good network.

Applications "Management Activities at the Faculty of Informatics Laboratory Database ITTelkom" was made, in the hope of completing of problems that had occurred at the Laboratory Database.