Abstract

To ensure the smooth handling of the management process in a comics rental and selling place in order to become a place of business that exist in in its activities, it takes an application that can handle and manage the course of events there.

Final project, entitled "Manufacturing of Comics Rental and Sales Information Sistem" is have a capability in in the management of the business management activities of comics leasing and selling that occur. This application is implemented on the Java platform, which the interface will be easy to understand and not complicated. In addition, JSP is also used on the server side in order to give a more optimal performance.

"Manufacturing of Comics Rental and Sales Information Sistem" was made, with hope of being able to resolve all sorts of issues management and transactions that occur in the comic rental and sales place.

Keywords : information sistem, Java, JSP, management, comic