

ABSTRACT

Elementary school is basic education place where students as one part of the system are purposed to have a basic knowledge to aim their next destination of education. Basic knowledge or education such as Math, Bahasa Indonesia, and Social Education Study is coming to be a target important value for continuing education to the next level through National Exam (Ujian Nasional)

Score Monitoring Application for these Children on 4th, 5th, and 6th is benefit to know how far the preparation to face National Exam which will be passed by those students. This application has an advantage and ability to monitorize score for teacher even current student. Storing score documentation that will be one of development point from student's preparation to face Final exam, overview, and recommendation in the end of development view.

This score monitoring application was created with great expectation, to help all over school element system in monitoring of the student's development to face Final Exam level of education.