

Abstract

Laundry business is growing all the time. Business process also have envolved, so the software that used by laundry could no longer handle the manage the process business. It make needs for new capable software. But the business laundry owner couldn't always buy new software when they need new functionality. The dynamic , integrated, secure, and cheap software for handle the envolving laundry business is expected can become the solution.

Final Project "Application Software as Service in Laundry Business Management Service was built using PHP programming language, CodeIgniter Frameword and MySQL DBMS. This online software for laundry business management with criticisms-suggestions feature is expected to fullfil laundry business software management needs and give inovatif service according laundry business needs that always envolved.

Key words: busniess process, laundry , Software as Service