

ABSTRACT
DESIGNING COUTURE PRODUCTS WITH A MYSTERIOUS
ROMANTIC THEME

By:
IRA ANDAYANI
Nim: 1405100003

Satin and tulle are two different kinds of fabric with different advantages and disadvantages as well. One difference between satin and tulle namely, Satin has a fiber structure which when cut / cut the fiber will break. While tulle has a strong structure, if the fiber is cut it will not break. Basically both these fabrics can be processed into a product worth selling high fashion.

The purpose of this study is to provide more value to the value of satin and tulle, satin and tulle explore into high fashion products, provide different innovation by utilizing the character of satin and tulle itself into something that has more selling points.

From the research, product designing couture is concluded that the exploration of the use of satin and tulle can be explored through heating techniques, stitching, embroidery, and also layering.

Keywords:

Satin fabric, tulle fabric, fiber, haute couture