

ABSTRACT

---

Web-based application service is application that can be accessed through the internet or intranets that allows a device with different platform communicate. Until now the use of a web service more widely and more use.

The application “Management Studio Music ORION using a Web Service” built to run data management systems more fleksible and efficient. Data management service rent formerly manual recorded in a book by each operator - each service is now being kept in a database. The operator only need to access application that has been provided and do the input of data and will be conducted the process of data storage and retrieval of data from a database. In addition manager will be more easily see all rental data services each operator services of the report. Services do a tenant rent registration services formerly supposed to visit the location of now only need to access the applications and do rent registration services.

Keyword : database, web sevice, application