

ABSTRACT

Web and Android based application for information of Indonesian traditional weapons and games, or may called SERNANTRA is made to make an ease people in looking for information of history about Indonesian culture wiith using an exists technology .for the example is GoogleMaps are used in this apps to make ease in providing location information of traditional weapons and games

Not only those GoogleMaps technology, in every detail information page there Is information with iage and video feature. The function of video information is for making clear about how to use traditional weapons or how to play traditional games and also could be explaining a history about it.

And for the people that doesn't know the existence of Indonesian traditional weapons and games, they can search at the searching page which is that page has to categorize the weapons and games. Categorize for the weapons is from the province and kind of traditional weapons. And categorize for the games is from the province and name of traditional games.

Key Words: SERNANTRA , Weapons, Games